NEW LIMITED EDITION FURNITURE FROM HEPPLEWHITE

Fitted bedroom furniture specialist Hepplewhite is offering retailers a new limited edition furniture range as part of its January sale.

The new range, Fairfield is designed to create an unbeatable stylish and on trend offer at a peak buying time. Fairfield uses classic and uncomplicated styling which is complemented by real wood veneer accents and accessories.

Hepplewhite's sale takes place between January 2nd and March 3rd. It includes 30% off the special buy Fairfield range, 15% off all veneer and vinyl bedrooms and 20% off all panorama bedrooms and home offices.

Tim Gent, Hepplewhite national sales manager, said: "Our January sale includes some very generous discounts but adding Fairfield as a limited edition will create a real buzz and a unique opportunity for retailers to offer something special.

"Features such as the chest top mirror and jewellery drawer, long bar oak handles and framed headboard give the range a character of its own. Fairfield comes in either white or timeless gardenia with light, natural oak veneer

"Fairfield offers all of benefits that you would expect from a Hepplewhite fitted bedroom. All our wardrobes are available in frame as well as carcass constructions. We also have the ability to make some specials should the design require it."
